

College of William and Mary Applied Research Center Student Newsletter

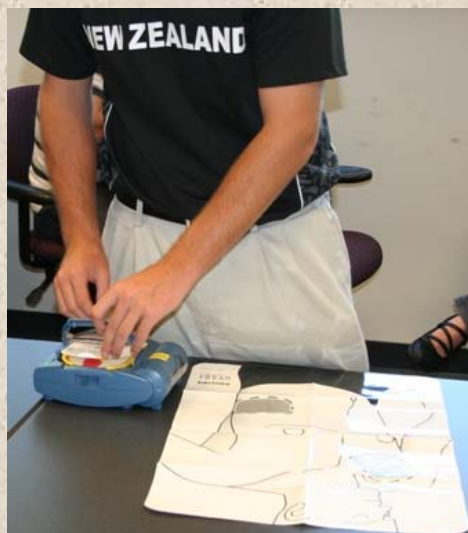

AED Training

Sandra Prior, Director of WM EH&S, works with Matt Reiss, showing him how to position the AED Shock adapters so that in any emergency he is able to operate the equipment.

The William and Mary Lab team lead by Amy learns how and when to use an AED

Matt begins AED practice by opening the pad case, then following the verbal instruction process given by the equipment.

Richard Proper strikes Choking Charlie on the back trying to dislodge the food stuck in his throat.

Mike tries the Heimlich maneuver on Choking Charlie.

